

Why Build A PC with Isaac Howie?

Isaac Howie gets you the best performance for the best price. Not to mention the looks.

The best deal possible for building a PC is now here. Isaac Howie's eye-catching PCs for low prices are a deal you can't ignore. Shown to the right is a build featuring a NZXT Kraken series cooler in an NZXT H series case with NZXT fans.

We've got you covered for components.

When you order an Isaac Howie prebuilt PC, you get the best on the market. Satisfaction guaranteed, or a $100 SSD on us.

Isaac has the experience to get you what you need.

With over 3 years in the PC industry, Isaac's flawless builds get what you need and want at a price with no competition. Whether you need one PC or 50, Isaac provides the same great price.

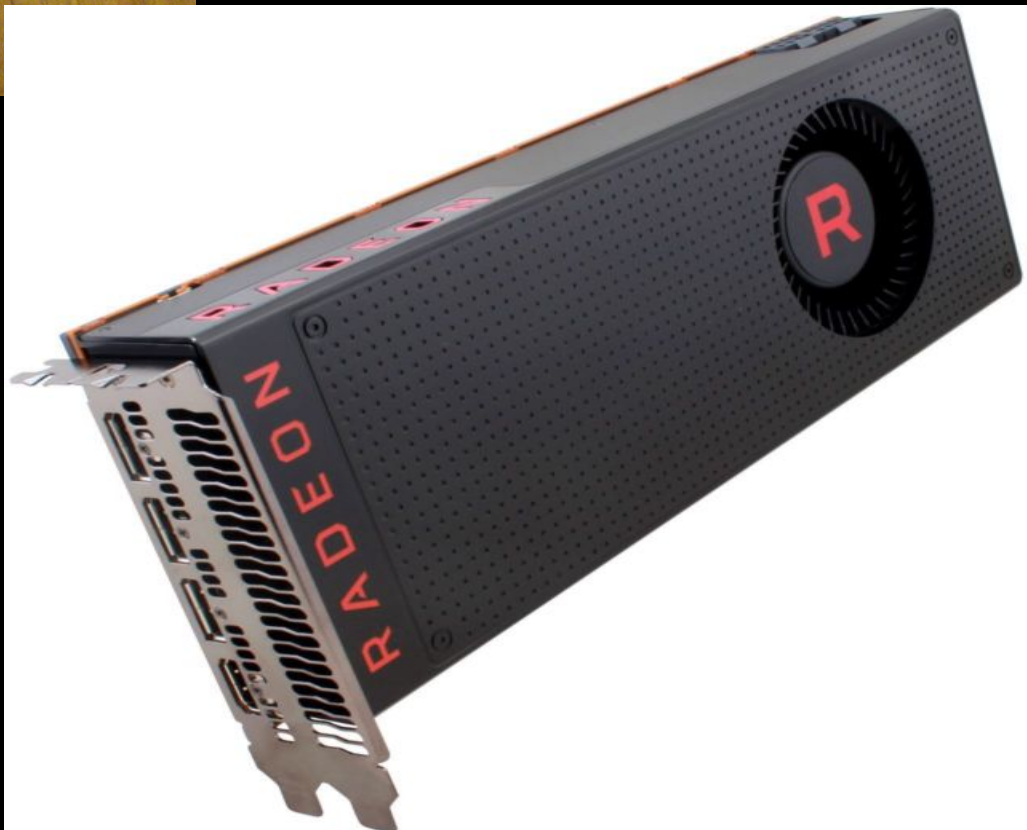

Building with Isaac is easy.

We sort through the mess of PC components to get you what you need with no confusion. Just three things need to be specified when building a PC with Isaac: Intended usage, such as browsing or gaming, colour scheme, such as black and red, and your budget.

We get the best prices on expensive stuff.

And if not, pre-owned options are available too, for specific parts. Buying pre-owned can save both money and time, not to mention they have already been tested, and function as they should.

If you need a new PC, Isaac Howie is the right choice for you.
